MISSIONS OUTREACH

Eyeglasses for Sudan: Michala Blodgett, a recent 8th grade graduate of Holy Cross is working on her Girl Scout Silver Award. She is collecting eyeglasses for Hands of Mercy, a Lutheran organization run by Deaconess Pat Nuffer that helps persons with disabilities in Sudan. The eyeglasses must be in good condition (no broken glasses please) so that Deaconess Nuffer can take them with her to Sudan this summer and give them to anyone in need of glasses. Glasses can be dropped off in the collection box in the Welcome Center through Sunday, July 4.

Thank You! The youth going on the summer mission trip to Grand Rapids would like to thank everyone for the generous door offering last weekend. All support goes directly toward lowering individual cost and to scholarships. Your generosity will allow students to go who otherwise may not have been able to. (If you didn’t get the chance to give, but would like to, feel free to drop a check in the offering or to the church office with “Workcamp” in the memo.)

Fathers’ Day Youth Car Wash: The youth going on the summer mission trip to Grand Rapids will be doing a carwash fundraiser on Saturday and Sunday of Father’s Day weekend (June 19-20) during the worship services. Park in the designated areas to have your car washed while you worship. All donations are gratefully accepted. Thanks!
